Content that's as diverse as your community

Get the right content for every patron. Make it easy for them to access thousands of publications from all over the world.

Content that's local, global and everything in between

Every patron is different. Whether they are looking for local stories, global news or tips for creating the perfect summer garden, we've got content for everyone.

| 60+ languages | 120+ countries |

> " Fantastic selection of quality publications from around the world - easy to use with great quality, clear images."
>
> - John Kemp, library patron

Trusted by patrons, loved by librarians

Give your patrons a whole new world of content, without the added burden.
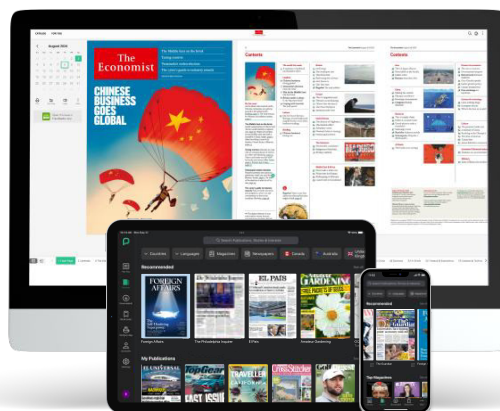

| No curation required | Usage insights | Reduce print |
| Publish you own content | Various authentication options |

> " PressReader is the linchpin of our eResources. It accounts for 60% of our overall statistics."
>
> - Andrew Button, Virtual Access Manager, Warwickshire Libraries

Designed with your whole community in mind

Easy to access, easy to use. Whenever they want, whether they're in the library, at home or on the go.

| Original layout or text view | No user account needed |
| Accessibility mode | Listen to the news | Remote access |

The average user accesses PressReader every 3 days and reads ~18.5 publications a month

Click to get in touch